Mission:

K Space Contemporary is a 501c3 non-profit organization dedicated to presenting & promoting contemporary art to South Texas.

Dear K Space Supporter:

We are excited to announce that WIGOUT our signature “FUN” draiser for Art Education, will be held Saturday, April 12th, 8 pm to midnight in our galleries at 623 N. Chaparral St.

At WigOut: Surreal Sugar High, you’ll step into a whimsical, candy-coated fantasy with oversized lollipops, floating cotton candy clouds, and electrifying music by Ed Ocañas and Rave. Expect inventive costumes, mesmerizing lights, and fantastical photo ops. Indulge in sugar-inspired cocktails, exquisite hors d’oeuvres, and interactive art installations that blur the lines between sweet dreams and wild imagination evoking the artwork of Miró, Dalí, and Magritte. Dress in your most bizarre, candy-inspired attire for a night of sugar-fueled magic!

All proceeds support K Space Art Education Programs, including our Summer Mural Arts Program (which has created 25 public murals to date), Art Lab for Teens, workshops, and outreach classes to K-12 schools, senior centers, and non-profit partners. This year, we are focusing on raising funds to support our teen Summer Mural Arts Program, typically covered by a now-unavailable grant.

Help us reach our $35,000 goal by purchasing tickets, bidding in the silent auction, donating goods or services, or by becoming a sponsor.

Enclosed are sponsorship details and in-kind donation opportunities.

Return the appropriate form(s) by March 31st or visit

<https://www.kspacecontemporary.org/wig-out> to contribute.

We'd love to partner with you to make this event a success. Please reach out to discuss sponsorship options or for answers to any questions at (361) 887-6834.

Thank you for your past support. We look forward to celebrating with you again this year!

Sincerely,
